

INNOVATIVE ICT EDUCATION FOR SOCIAL-ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Kick-Off Meeting was held in Belarusian State Pedagogical University named after Maxim Tank 18 Sovetskaya Street, Minsk, Belarus, 4 April 2017

Project objectives

- Development of modern competencies of specialists in IT field.
- Modernization of syllabi training IT specialists, development and implementation of 5 new flexible programmes on the bachelor level based on new approaches, European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS) into a line with Bologna requirements.
- Bringing 25 modern courses, implementing innovative teaching / learning methods and tools.
- Purchasing special equipment for 5 eLearning laboratories for partner universities from Belarus.

Participants attending the meeting: project management group, teachers from Belarus partner universities, experts from EU partner universities, representatives of Ministry of Education of the Republic of Belarus and National Erasmus+ office of Belarus, social stakeholders, students.

EVENTS

2017

Practical seminar “Synthesis of Competencies and Technologies in IT Specialist Training” (BY)

Practical seminar “Modelling of IT Specialist Profile” (FR)

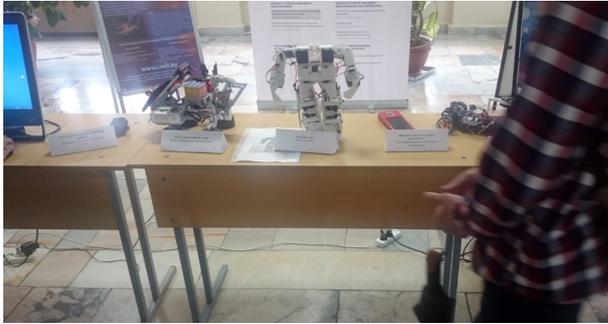

English language courses

Internship “Innovative Study Methods” (PL)

2018

Internship “IT Theory, Innovative Methods and Practice” (FR)

Internship “IT in the Context of Intercultural Competency (UK)

Project activities

- Seminars
- English Language Courses
- Internship “Innovative Study Methods”
- Internship “IT Theory, Innovative Methods and Practice”
- Internship” IT in the Context of Intercultural Competency”
- Upgrading of IT Study Programmes
- Expertise of Study Programmes

Kick-Off Meeting & Practical Seminar, April 4-6, 2017

Introduction and welcome to the kick-off meeting was done by the project coordinator Rozalija Radlinskaitė, who presented Erasmus+ Capacity Building in Higher Education Programme. Official greeting on behalf of Belarusian State Pedagogical University named after Maxim Tank, Belarus, was made by Vice- Rector Valerij Zelenkevich. The Vice - Rector noted that IESED project is very important in the new context of globalization of the market. On behalf of the project coordinating institution ALYTAUS KOLEGIJA/University of Applied Sciences, Lithuania, director Danutė Remeikienė congratulated the participants of the kick – off meeting and noted that the project will be interesting and useful for students and teachers and they will be given a perfect opportunity to share knowledge at the highest level between project partners - Belarus and EU universities.

